We welcome visitors to our members' owned club set in the beautiful countryside of Herefordshire.

THE CLUB HOUSE

Visitors are requested to change into smart casual dress after playing.

We have good spacious changing room facilities on the ground floor with dining room and lounge on the upper floor that have views over the course which extend to the Cleve Hills in Shropshire.

HISTORY

The Club was founded in 1896 and moved to its present site in 1932. The Course Record of 61 is held by Professional Brian Barnes. In 1996 the Club celebrated its Centenary.

A recent golf publication article said that 'If you find Gleneagles too expensive to visit, do the next best thing and treat yourself to a day at the Herefordshire Golf Club'.

THE COURSE

Our 18 hole undulating parkland course is 6036 yards long with a Par of 70, with panoramic views of the Welsh Mountains and surrounding countryside.

PROFESSIONAL'S SHOP

A warm welcome will be extended to you while viewing the extensive ranges of leading manufacturers equipment at prices which compete with most golf discount stores. Buggies and trolleys are also available for hire by prior arrangement.
