HISTORY

The club was incorporated in 1903 and moved to it's present site before the Second World War, the course as we know it today began to take shape in 1967 as a 9 hole course the final extension to the current 18 holes was completed in 1990.

TODAY

Visitors are always welcome and details of green fees and society bookings should be addressed to the Club Secretary.

Membership enquiries are invited as opportunities may exist in one of the categories of membership.

THE COURSE

Our 18 hole course which measures over 6000 yards was designed with the 1st and 10th tees close to the clubhouse enabling us to offer a variety of packages for an enjoyable days golf.

The undulating parkland course has the lower holes running alongside the river with others on the higher parts of the course offering stunning panoramic views of the surrounding countryside. Visitors will always feel that time permits the luxury of enjoying such scenic delights.

The course designers have taken full advantage of all the natural hazards, resulting in a unique challenging but fair test of golf in which no two holes are alike. When playing the course golfers will find a thoughtful approach to their game will be well rewarded.

A friendly welcome can be guaranteed however to save embarrassment please note our dress code.

Denim clothes, collarless shirts, tracksuits and training shoes may not be worn on the course. Tailored shorts and short socks are permitted. All golfers must have their own set of clubs.

FISHING

As an added pleasure or an alternative to golf we are able to offer anglers access to the River Lugg which forms the western boundary of the course for some 1000 yards providing excellent coarse fishing, where anglers will find a number of quiet pools and several stretches of fast water.

As temporary members of the club anglers enjoy all the benefits and facilities the clubhouse affords. Details of day tickets are available from the club secretary.
